The New Jersey State Police, the New Jersey Homicide Investigator's Association, and the Princeton University Department of Public Safety cordially invite you to participate in our 28th Annual Advanced Homicide Investigation Conference. The conference will be held on the campus of Princeton University.

The conference is designed to meet the needs of investigators and supervisors tasked with the investigation of homicides, suicides and unnatural deaths. Topics of discussion include: interview and interrogation, pediatric death investigation, behavioral analysis, sexual deviant homicides, crime scene reconstruction, blood pattern analysis, and forensic pathology as well as major case studies.

Attendees will have ample opportunity to discuss their own cases with investigators from across the United States and several foreign nations. We have designed the conference to provide social activities which facilitate networking and small group discussions between the attendees.

We sincerely hope a representative from your agency can join us in Princeton this year for a conference that will be educational, practical, and a pleasure to attend.

Course Information

DATE: JUNE 12th - 16th, 2023

Registration will be from 6:00 to 9:00 PM on Sunday, June 11th, 2023, at the Hyatt Place, located in Princeton, and from 8:00 to 8:30 AM at the Frist Center on Monday, June 12th, 2023. Opening ceremonies begin at 8:30 AM in Albert Einstein's original lecture hall located on the 3rd floor of the Frist Center.

Location

The educational part of the conference will be held on the grounds of Princeton University in Princeton, New Jersey. A food court, university store, and other amenities are located within walking distance of the auditorium.

Conference Tuition

The conference tuition is $675, and includes the conference book and other learning materials. A well-stocked continental breakfast, morning coffee, and afternoon snack are also included. In addition, tuition includes a Thursday evening banquet, as well as additional social activities.

Social Activities

Conference attendees are invited to attend a private tour of Princeton University by Princeton Tour Company followed by a social reception. Conference attendees will be bused to Liberty State Park for a boat ride across the Hudson River to experience a tour of the National September 11th Memorial & Museum located at Ground Zero, followed by a dinner cruise on the Hudson River with views of the Statue of Liberty and Manhattan skyline. Conference attendees are invited to attend a formal banquet on the Princeton University campus.

Registration

Please complete the registration form found at www.njsp.org or njhia.org and email to HomicideConference@njsp.org.

Checks should be made out to New Jersey Homicide Investigator's Association - Federal Tax ID No. 26-3742994. Class size is limited, therefore early registration is strongly recommended. Upon registering for the conference, you will subsequently receive an email confirming registration and with more detailed information and instructions.

Lodging & Transportation

Lodging and transportation are the responsibility of the participant. The Princeton Hyatt Place, located a short distance from the conference, is the official hotel of the conference and will be the location of several conference events. The Hyatt Place is offering rooms to conference attendees at a reduced rate (call 609-720-0200 and mention group code G-SPIN when booking). Please make your reservation early as the hotel typically is sold out during the week of the conference. Other hotels in the Princeton area are also available a short drive away.
