

This Summer, be part of the

New Jersey State Police Trooper Youth Week

The New Jersey State Police is seeking exemplary 17-year-old high school students interested in a career in law enforcement to participate in the New Jersey State Police Trooper Youth Week. This week-long residential boot camp style training program will expose you to a variety of specialized units and job functions within the State Police. While at the Academy, you will engage in scenario-based training where you will be challenged to make decisions, provide leadership, and display self confidence in situations troopers may face any given day. You will actively participate in:

- Military Drill
- Physical Training
- Team Building Exercises
- Scenario-Based Training
- Residence in military barracks

Program activities include interaction with:

- Aviation Unit
- Bomb Squad
- Tactical Emergency Mission Specialists
- Marine Services
- Crime Scene
- Canine Unit & others!

If YOU are up to the challenge, talk to your Guidance Counselor!

Nomination Forms must be received on or before
March 19, 2010.
